

Oxford Big Read

Dear Parent

At Oxford University Press, we understand the power of reading—and we know you do too.

Do you encourage your child to read books that are high quality, relevant and truly engaging?

To support you in this important journey, Oxford University Press India brings to you Oxford Big Read—a reading competition for school students across India. Here, children will read a book from the Oxford Big Read catalogue and complete a fun, age-appropriate activity based on their level. They can also explore eBooks on our digital platform, Oxford Reading Buddy*.

This year, we select level-wise one top student's entry from your child's school. The selected students will receive a special Certificate of Recognition and a medal - a proud moment for both the child and their school.
